Arrow."

Being new to Broken Arrow, Chief Boggs wants to take some time to better get to know the community and residents he now lives.

"We have had three meetings thus far and turnout is growing," said Chief Boggs. "It provides a unique opportunity to sit and discuss anything that might be on people's minds without an agenda. It has not only been a lot of fun, but it makes me continue to appreciate the genuinely nice and supportive community here in Broken
